

OMP

The OMP miller staircase is made of spruce wood. Special design makes it easily folded away freeing up the space around the staircase when it is not in use. It is ideal solution for mezzanines and rooms with very limited space.

Type

- straight miller staircase for DIY installation.

Material

- spruce wood to be finished by the Customer.

Stringers

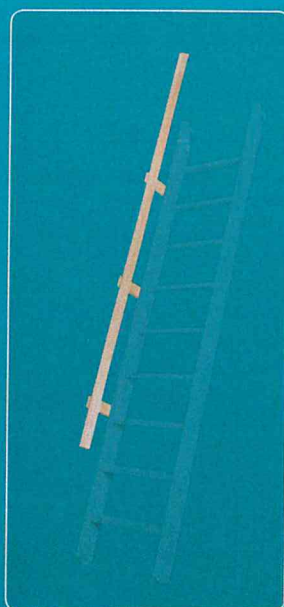

- thickness 2.7 cm.

Treads

- thickness 2.7 cm;
- connected with stringers in seats, additionally strengthened by means of screws.

Fixing method

- to the ceiling by means of installation set included with the staircase.

Safety and comfort of use

As standard, the staircase is fitted with a handrail mounted on the right or on the left.